Wilson Will Support McAdoo.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Pass Christian, Miss., January 6.—That President Wilson will support Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo in his opposition to the creation of a huge regional bank in New York is taken for granted by those who know his currency policy. The concentration of 40 or 50 per cent of the nation's banking reserves in New York will, it is safe to say, be promptily opposed by the President as soon as the proposition is broached by the organization committee.

Reports from Mexico City that Huerta, realizing that his funds are rapidly being depicted, is preparing to resign, were received with interest by President Wilson, but he had no comment to make upon them to-day.

President J. C. Brasweil, of the Planters Bank, was unqualifiedly for the selection of Richmond; but if Richmond was not to be had then his second choice was Washington. FOR REGIONAL BANK OF COMMANDING SIZE

Morgan's View of Great Institution in New York District Apparently Not Shared by McAdoo and Houston-Location Not Important Thing.

New York, January 6.—J. P. Morgan to-day aligned himself with advocates for a regional bank of commanding size in the district which is to include New York. Most of the other witnesses who appeared at to-day's hearing of the Federal reserve organization committee shared Mr. Morgan's views, arguing for the establishment of a regional bank in this territory which would represent 40 per cent or more of the capital of the entire national system. Secretaries McAdoo and Houston, who compose the committee, intiviews, arguing for the establishment of a regional bank in this territory which would represent 40 per cent or more of the capital of the entire national system. Secretarias McAdoo and Houston, who compose the committee, intimated that they did not share this view, although both said that they had reached no decision.

Mr. Morgan surprised his hearers by saying he did not consider it important whether a regional bank were located in New York. It might as well be in Boston, he believed. The important thing, he said, was to have the bank which served the New York, January 6.—"Do not strike any matches. Have Mr. Lawton open the baltiroom door."

This message, scrawled on a big plece of cardboard and propped on a table in the parlor of her home, startled bankers of all countries.

Mr. Morgan indicated that the invisation to give his views was something of a surprise.

Mr. Morgan looked doubtfully at the secretary, and said he feared he would not have the time to go into the matter exhaustively. He novertheless folded up the map and walked off with it, premising to do his best. In the opinion of Henry II. GAY TIME IN BALTIMORE

Society People Attend Big Costumo
Ball—An All-Night Event.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Baltimore, Md., January 6.—Baltimore society had a great time to-night at the big costume ball held at the Helvedere. Professional dancers from New York were engaged to entertain the patrons, and the entertainment lasted until 4 o'clock in the morning, when a breakfast, including champagne, was served. Society matrons and debutantes reveled, masked as bacchantes, boys, pierrots and Oriental dancers, and some of the costumes were startling. The men were no less picturesquely arrayed, some wearing red riding coats and others dressed as Highlanders, Tommy Atkinses and toreadors.
